

- Design and build crucial infrastructure that benefits society in many ways.
- Assist public officials and design new ways of meeting the needs of the public.
- Help to restore, protect, and improve the environment.

1 EDUCATION

Minimum Requirements:

Bachelor's degrees

in Civil or Environmental

Engineering

2 EXAMINATION

The Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) Exam:
Recent graduates and students who are close to graduating from an ABET accredited program are eligible.

The Principles and Practices of Engineering (PE) Exam:

Professionals with a minimum of four years of qualified work experience are eligible to apply and test for licensure.

The PE license is the engineering profession's highest standard of competence.

3 EXPERIENCE

Career opportunities include:

Project management, technical expertise, client services, health and safety compliance, regulation, and more.

BENEFITS OF BEING A WATER INDUSTRY ENGINEER:

- Be an environmental steward and make important contributions to your community.
- Water Industry Engineers are in high demand! Enjoy job security as an essential worker.
- Engage in challenging and rewarding projects.
- Salary range in NH: $65,000 $190,000.

